Item 10: Resolution approving a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between the County of San Diego and the Redevelopment Agency regarding the funding of nine courtrooms in Downtown San Diego. (Continued from meeting of December 5, 1989.)

Pam Hamilton reported on the meeting she and John Lockwood had with County officials to obtain financial information relating to this item. The Board of Supervisors voted 5-0 in favor of the El Cortez site.

Those speaking in favor of the El Cortez site were: Presiding Judge-Elect Judith McConnell; Virginia Nelson, President of the San Diego County Bar Association; David Ferguson, agent for the County; Matt Peterson; David Murphy; Hal Sadler; and Doug Austin.

Those speaking on the merits of the Walker Scott location were Louis Wolfsheimer, Barry Athearn and Marie Lia.

Members discussed the MOU and the County's decision to select the El Cortez location. Members wished to get a commitment in writing from the County that the nine courtrooms would remain in the downtown area for a minimum of ten years, although it was their desire that they never be moved out of downtown. David Janssen, Asst. County Chief Administrative Officer, stated that it is the County's intention to keep these courts downtown, and he saw no problem in getting the Board to agree to a letter of agreement to this effect.

Motion by Filner to approve the resolution, amended by Roberts to require that CCDC obtain a commitment in writing from the Board to maintain the nine courtrooms downtown permanently.
